

Working together is vital, we welcome information from parents and children and we liaise frequently. We involve external agencies when appropriate to ensure maximum opportunities for the child.