

We use a variety of ways to support pupils with communication. We offer signing, gestures, picture cards and will support in anyway we can to allow pupils to communicate in their preferred way.

We know some children need a running commentary from the adult to promote language and understanding.

b